AGAFAY DESERT GLAMPING

The Agafay Desert's Luxury Stone Camps have become the trendsetting destination for holiday travelers to Morocco who are interested in a luxury glamping experience. Agafay is surrounded by an arid, yet majestic rocky landscape that resembles a moon crater and located an hour away from Marrakech. At one time travelers to Morocco placed the Erg Chebbi and Erg Chigaga Sahara Desert Dunes on their bucket list yet with the popularity of Agafay the twelve-hour distance to the south is less enticing and has made, luxury glamping in the region of Marrakech the latest attraction.

The Agafay Desert also has notoriety from Hollywood stars, Instagram influencers, honeymooners, couples seeking wedding destinations, and groups in search of silence and comfort. Many travelers also come to Agafay to take advantage of the natural scenery for photoshoots. The legendary Queen of Pop, Madonna, visited Marrakech several times in 2018 and celebrated her 60th birthday in the Agafay Desert.
